

Tony Moua

File System Watcher: Run from Command Prompt. After compile run: program.cs followed by a path you desire

If path is not valid you will be reprompted till your path is validated.

Using FileSystemWatcher: watches what is happening to folders and files within the path that has been selected by the user. It will report back to the console and log file what is being done, Deleted, renamed, Moved, created.